APPLICATION TIME • SUMMER 2025

Apply For Newborn, Childcare, Youth, and Elder/Disabled Benefits!

Parents may receive financial reimbursement for childcare and youth programs. College-bound teens can receive a coach to assist with college admissions. For those with elderly or disabled relatives, the Plan offers financial reimbursement for caregiving in addition to personalized counseling and referrals to providers and services.

It's best to apply every summer for the new benefit year that starts in September. You have two ways to apply for benefits—visit us or apply online.

Apply Online

- Go to local2benefits.org on a computer.
- Choose your benefits, upload your documents, and complete the application.

Application Tips

- Determine the one or two benefits you want by reviewing the chart inside our brochure. You may select a primary and an additional benefit or two additional benefits.
- Inside the brochure on the right, you'll see the documents required for each benefit. If you are applying for the same person(s) as last year, you do not need to supply forms to prove birth, marriage, or social security number.
- Benefits are paid through direct deposit so if you are a new applicant or have a new bank account bring a check which shows the bank account and routing number.
- The forms you submit must be in English.
- If you cannot come to the Action Room during the application times, our office is open on Monday and Wednesday, 8:30a – 4:45p.
